

Warsaw, 5th October, 2018

We cordially invite you to attend the Seminar “Critical Theory of Organization”, that will take place on Thursday, 15th November at 12.00 in Senate Room at Kozminski University in Warsaw, Jagiellonska 59 Str.

During the meeting Professor Guido Möllering will talk about “Trust and Responsibility”. Guido Möllering is the Director and Chair of Management at the Reinhard Mohn Institute of Management, Witten/Herdecke University, Germany. He earned his PhD in Management at the University of Cambridge, UK, and his habilitation (postdoctoral degree, venia legendi) in Business Administration at Freie Universität Berlin, Germany. His main areas of research are inter-organizational relationships, organizational fields and trust. He is the author of Trust: Reason, Routine, Reflexivity (Elsevier, 2006), co-editor of the Handbook of Research Methods on Trust (2nd ed., 2015, Edward Elgar), Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Trust Research (Routledge) and a Senior Editor of Organization Studies (Sage). His work has been published in influential collections and in leading journals such as Organization Science and Journal of International Business Studies. He received the Peregrinus Award of the Bavarian Academy of Sciences and Humanities in 2009 and the Carolyn Dexter Best International Paper Award of the Academy of Management in 2007.

Professor Möllering’s speech will be discussed by Dr. Anna Woźniak.

Dr Anna Woźniak holds a PhD in economics from the University of St. Gallen. She has worked at universities in England, Scotland and Singapore. Currently, she teaches at Koźmiński University and works as an independent publisher. Her research interests revolve around areas of agency, freedom and subjectivity in an intellectual work. She is also interested in philosophical traditions long forgotten in academia.
