Leipzig

Germany’s liveliest university city

Leipzig is a vibrant cosmopolitan city with attractions and opportunities waiting to be explored. The New York Times ranked the city among the top 10 of “The 31 Places to Go in 2010.” Indeed, Leipzig is developing at breakneck speed into a metropolis with excellent potential. The “Leipzig fever” is spreading – and has already caught big names like Amazon, BMW and Porsche.

A wealth of leisure activities tempts you everywhere you go, both in and around Leipzig. Whether jogging or cycling along the canals, rowing on the river Elster, horseback riding in the Auenwald forest – you will quickly find a welcome break from studying. In the evening, bustling nightlife, bars and clubs from very traditional to avant-garde are open all night long.

Leipzig is home to 40,000 students and offers a high-quality lifestyle with plenty of reasonably priced housing options. It is an open-minded and friendly city where international students and guests feel at home. The HHL Campus is located only a few hundred meters away from the city center. Nestled on the green banks of the river Elster, the HHL buildings are surrounded by attractive parkland and outdoor sports facilities.
